

Our global theme this term in Edison is Social Justice and Equity with a focus on resilience and positive growth mind-set.

In English, we will be:

Our core text this term is “After the fall” by Dan Santat.

- Ordering events using a timeline
- Creating a story map of the characters journeys
- Exploring emotive language and generating powerful adjectives
- Writing an epilogue for a nursery rhyme
- As part of the SEMH English journey we

In Geography, we will be:

- Exploring the host countries for the Olympics
- Comparing the human and physical features of host countries
- Posing the question “Does the size and the population of a country have an impact on the success within the Olympics?”
- Creating and organizing our own DEC Olympic Games

In Maths, we will be:

- Exploring division using the formal method to divide 3-digit numbers by 1-digit numbers.
- Understanding equivalent fractions
- Identifying fractions of an amount
- Adding mixed fractions and subtracting decimals up to two decimal points.

In Science, we will be:

- Exploring how our environment may change
- We are identifying how these changes may occur naturally
- Reflecting on global impact within our local area

In RE, we will be:

- Exploring the Hindu God Ganesh
- Identifying how Hindus celebrate Holi
- Identifying the importance of Hindu places of worship.

In RSE, we will be:

- Exploring how to budget and different types of budgeting techniques
- Identifying what a “digital footprint” is and how it can have an impact on us and others.

In Music, we will be:

- Interpreting music and how it can affect our feelings

In Art, we will be:

- Studying the artist Evan Turk
- Exploring landscape artwork
- Creating a quilt landscape pattern using sewing

In SEMH, we will be:

- Developing social and communication skills during Lego interventions
- Help children to understand and regulate their emotions using the Hamish and Milo program.
- Teaching the zones of regulation to support our emotional regulation.

In PE, we will be:

- Demonstrate footwork movement patterns and correct jab technique
- Understand and demonstrate the value of boxercise moves
- Learning an aerobic exercise routine and demonstrate this to others
- Create and perform a sequenced boxercise routine

In Reading, we will be:

- Consolidating the reading strategies
- Learning answering comprehension questions techniques
- Reading daily with our partner and independently